1952 Monrovia, Apr 12. Thank you much for your ^{most} very necessary letter. I was wondering why no one spoke of the way Fillmore had disgraced the US nation & the Eu world. The English people are accustomed to say our say at home; but we don't get a hearing in your country; & of course I wondered where the Abolitionists were! You have said it just like your old dear & noble self. Only the one climax of villainy never seems put prominently forward.
What other man, body or nation, not merely in Xenodrom but in the civilized world, ever passed a law to pay a judge double for finding a man guilty? I well remember T. P.'s sermon shewing Judge Louisa to be worse than Jeffreys, almost than J. D. Carid; has no clergyman preached a funeral sermon over the ~~President~~ ^{Unitarian} President who might have vetoed that law, but didn't? Mason, Fillmore & Dewey are a trio to be named with Jeffreys, Judas & Nero. Perhaps each triad thought they were doing the correct thing.
